About Jim Brickman

Jim Brickman's distinctive piano style and captivating live performances have revolutionized the popularity of instrumental music, making him a driving force behind modern American music. The hit-making songwriter is the best-selling solo pianist of our time earning 21 #1 albums and 32 Top 20 Radio Singles from Billboard magazine. He's garnered two Grammy nominations, gospel music's Dove Award, two SESAC Songwriter of the Year Awards, and the Canadian Country Music Award. His star-studded vocal collaborations have crossed genres to feature luminaries like Martina McBride, Carly Simon, Lady Antebellum, Michael W. Smith, Herb Alpert, Michael Bolton, Donny Osmond, Kenny Rogers, Olivia Newton-John, Johnny Mathis, Kenny Loggins, Jane Krakowski, and a host of country, Broadway, pop and jazz musicians. His first album release was 1995's "No Words," and he's gone on to sell eight million albums worldwide since then. Brickman has also written three best-selling books, starred in four TV concert specials, and is in the 21st season of hosting the popular syndicated radio show: "The Jim Brickman Show."

"I write music to be shared — to soothe, to inspire, to celebrate, to love. To me, music is the pure and simple soundtrack to life's most memorable moments." – Jim Brickman

"Brickman makes magical music and evokes warm sentiments" – Billboard
