Roland Unveils the KS-10Z Keyboard Stand and Other Accessories

KS-10Z is part of newly expanded line of Roland and BOSS accessories; other new additions include CB-BTRMX Black Series Instrument Bag for the Roland TR-8S/TR-8 Rhythm Performer and MX-1 Mix Performer, CB-BAX Black Series Keyboard Bag for the Roland AX-Edge Keytar, and BAC-NEXA / BAC-NEXST Guitar Amp Covers for the BOSS Nextone-Artist and Nextone-Stage

Hamamatsu, Japan, January 23, 2019 — Roland is unveiling the KS-10Z Keyboard Stand and other accessories. The KS-10Z takes the classic “Z-stand” configuration and enhances it for increased usability. With its versatile adjustable design, this rugged stand is suitable for all types of stage pianos and keyboards, including large and heavy 88-note models. Spring-loaded levers provide quick and easy height adjustment, and sturdy metal crossbars add strength and stability while also allowing for width adjustments. The KS-10Z’s foam-padded support arms conveniently fold down for transport, enabling easy travel from home to gig and back.

CB-BTRMX Black Series Instrument Bag for the Roland TR-8S/TR-8 Rhythm Performer and MX-1 Mix Performer: Whether around town or on the road, gear will travel safely and in style with the new CB-BTRMX bag. Designed to perfectly fit the TR-8S, TR-8, and MX-1, the CB-BTRMX delivers excellent protection in a lightweight design. Constructed with industrial-grade materials (black 600D polyester), a soft fleece interior, and reinforced handle, this rugged instrument bag provides superior longevity and protection while on the move.

CB-BAX Black Series Keyboard Bag for the Roland AX-Edge Keytar: Designed for the Roland AX-Edge Keytar, the CB-BAX bag delivers an unparalleled level of protection without weighing down the mobile keyboardist. The plush interior and extra-thick foam padding shield the AX-Edge from bumps and bruises, while convenient padded backpack straps and a padded shoulder strap make carrying easy. Armed with durable nylon and polyester material and commercial-grade zippers (including a zippered front pocket), the bag’s exterior will stand up to the most demanding pro applications. Measurements: 51 inches (130 cm) L x 14 inches (36 cm) H.

BAC-NEXA and BAC-NEXST Amp Cover for the BOSS Nextone-Artist and Nextone-Stage guitar amplifiers: This authentic BOSS amp cover will help keep the Nextone-Artist and Nextone-Stage looking new. It shields against dust, dirt, and grime while protecting from minor scuffs and scrapes. The cover is made with durable polyester exterior with reinforced seams and a handle opening, and sized for a perfect fit. Color: black with tan embroidered Nextone logo.
